INDIVIDUAL

Frame Evo is not just simply a single table, but a true system with the ability to become a continuous length table for any project with the integration of central support power columns. Cable trays and recessed power/data boxes are easily added offering complete flexibility.

COLL ABO RATE

Frame Evo | Collaborate evolves into a modern high bench system offering a virtually endless range of possible sizes. Integrated foot rail and central support power columns allow ultimate flexibility to use as either a standing or sitting bench for lunch spaces, agile working and collaboration zones. Complete power/data solutions available.
