

CHARLIE CHAIR

alor

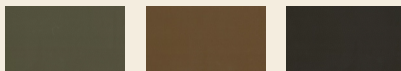

Description

Produced in a range of solid timbers with a molded plywood backrest that effortlessly slots into place (this was actually pretty tricky), this elegant dining chair doesn't try to be the life of the party... that's your job!

Certified internationally for both the home and commercial use, the Charlie Chair is ideal for any space that goes through a bit of a beating. Whether it's a family member that gets a bit carried away over christmas, or some customers at a boozie brunch, this chair will do the trick for you."
