

Products for People
The P4 Story, So Far...

P4.

Inspire. Create. Deliver.

Built on a simple belief.

Products should perform in the real world, for the people who use them.

Since 2002, P4 has helped inspire, create and deliver considered commercial furniture to projects across Australia, New Zealand and beyond. Working on countless projects of all sizes, we've helped shape workplaces, public settings, and shared environments with products chosen for performance and presence.

P4.

Our Purpose.

To help people work, think, collaborate, learn, relax, dine, and connect in the spaces they use every day.

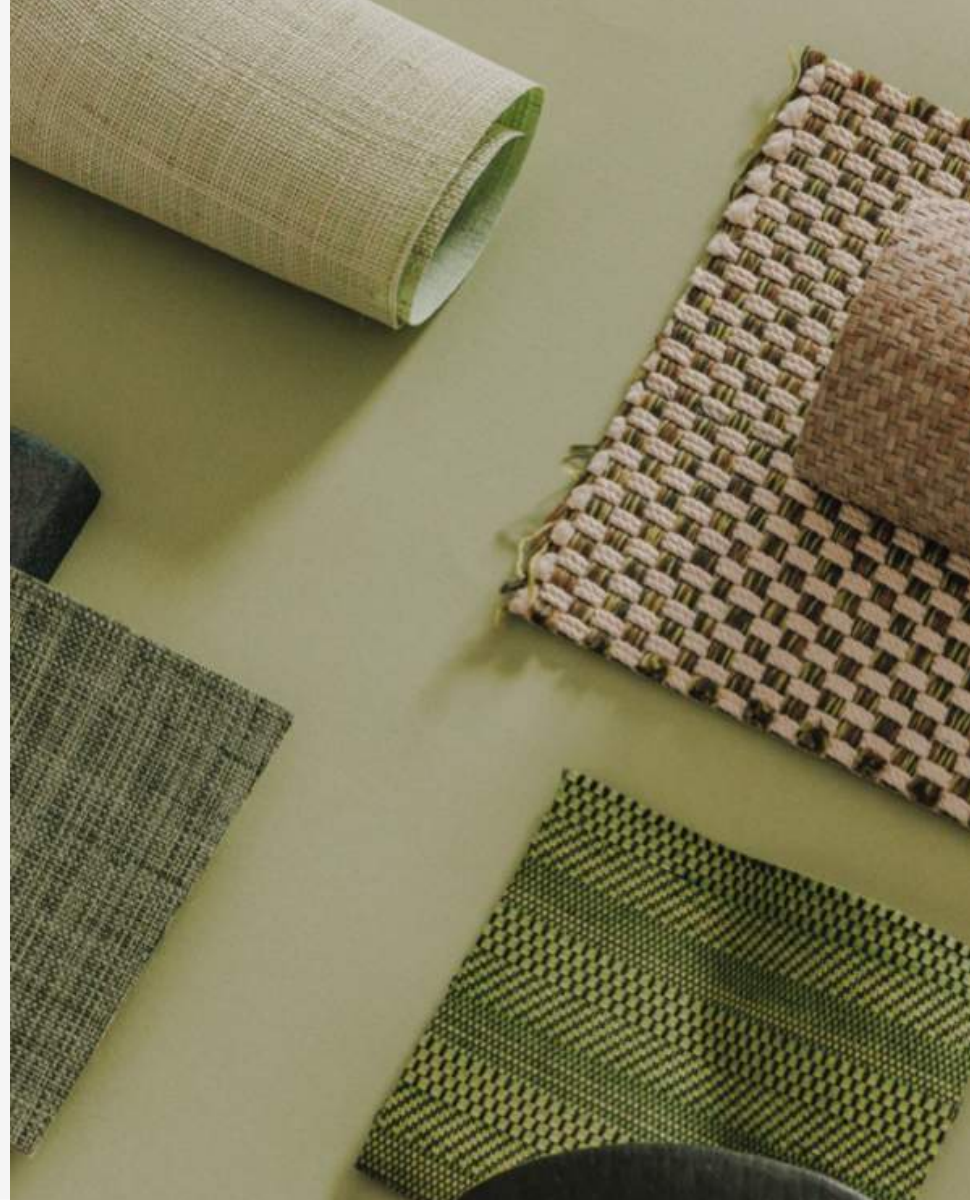

We curate global commercial furniture design and deliver it locally with care, compliance, and dependable follow-through, from ideas through to installation.

Inspire. Create. Deliver.

How we Work.

It starts with a conversation.

We begin by understanding your vision, the space, and the people who will use it. Ideas are shaped into solutions that support both design intent and real-world performance. Project delivery is seamless from concept, through to procurement, logistics, and installation. Underpinned by consistency, care, and attention to detail.

Why P4?

We don't just supply furniture. With local stock, local manufacturing, and customisation, we make sure it works, on real projects, in real spaces, for the people using them.

We think beyond the product to the outcome. We bring clarity to specification, manage the detail so projects keep moving, and stand behind what we deliver long after install.
