Introduction

Cremino is a collection of side tables designed by Favaretto & Partners for True, inspired by the famous three-layered chocolate from which it takes its name. The layered structure creates a dialogue between materials: a concrete top, textured and minimalist, or a sheet of Murano glass, paying homage to Italian craftsmanship.

Cremino è una collezione di tavolini disegnata da Favaretto & Partners per True, ispirata al celebre cioccolatino a tre strati da cui prende il nome. La struttura stratificata si traduce in un dialogo tra materiali: piano in cemento, materico ed essenziale, oppure in vetro di Murano in lastra, omaggio alla tradizione artigianale italiana.
